7 months you didn't bother to send me an email, explaining to me from your perspective why you have decided to blow your family!

5 months I was on my knees pleading you to reconsider your decision and save your family, forgetting the police, the lies under oath and that you had removed my kids from my life!
Cruelty and aggression was your answer.

You have no rational explanation...

It is impossible to believe that you have done correctly to enforce your will about the Xmas tree with such rough and authoritarian way against our agreement and your own promise!!!

You have fucked us all up in order to protect your infallibility, and this is why you wanted a new restart in your life!
To cut lose from me, who knew all your mistakes!!

Congratulations!

I am a decent person who now reacts to a woman who stole my kids from my life by police force and lies under oath together with the vilest of all humans I've met in my life.

And I realise the story I had told you when we saw the film "saving private Ryan"

You never know what a person is capable of doing when the circumstances are there.

And the circumstances are now here for me and I feel that if I chop off your father with an axe and feed the pigs in Emil's farm with his pieces, I will have served humanity....
