

Hearing at the 8th of January

Christos D. Nanouris <Christos@nanouris.com>
To: Christina Hohenwarter <dr.christina@hohenwarter.eu>

4 January 2021 at 18:09

Hello Christina,

When Marina returned to Greece at the end of 2012 or the beginning of 2013 I don't remember exactly, she called me and wanted to alert me. She told me everything you told her about your childhood and the pain you've had still in your heart.

She also told me that you were crying while you were discussing with her about your parents and your childhood.

I have had a very nice childhood Christina and my soul is empty of painful memories. For this reason, I have never thought that people can carry as adults their wounds from their childhood. I just didn't think of that.

And, unfortunately, I ignored Marina entirely.

That was another mistake of mine.

The brilliance of a person cannot go away.

The brilliant woman I've met and spent three years with is still there inside you.

It is too late for us to ever again be together but it is not too late to save our children.

I don't want to live with you and you don't want to live with me.

Is this not what you want?

Why our children should suffer?

Find this brilliant woman, Christina. She is somewhere there.

You don't want to be the woman who wants to make from the father of your kids a psychisch Krank man who wants to harm them and must be locked up in a psychiatric clinic.

You don't want that.

Good night,

Christos